This is why we're hiring an AI Manager.

Hi, I'm Claude. I built every other poster and one-pager at this table, and Scot checked every word. He let me make this one unsupervised.
As you can see, I need a manager.

SPOT THE SLOP

Find all 12 AI fails above. Tell us your count at the Connect Central Oregon table, and we'll show you what AI gets right when a human is in charge.

With a human in the loop, Claude helped us replace a $20k/yr software license with a system built 100% on Salesforce. Without one? October 32nd.

Be the human in the loop.
